

33rd Annual National Teaching Public Administration Conference
MAY 13th – 15th, 2010 - Grand Valley State University, Grand Rapids, MI.

Conference Theme: “Putting the SERVICE back into Communities: Transformational Service”

The call for proposals for the 33rd Annual Teaching Public Administration Conference is now open. The conference will be held Thursday, May 13 through Saturday, May 15, 2010 in partnership with Grand Valley State University in Grand Rapids, Michigan. This conference welcomes ideas and proposals from all disciplines and individuals passionate about the meaning of SERVICE and COMMUNITY. Presenters are invited to share their ideas, knowledge, and experiences through lecture, discussion, role play, game, audio, video, or any other pedagogy. Authors can submit their papers for possible symposium inclusion in the International Journal of Organization Theory and Behavior (IJOTB), and articles that address teaching in and administration of public affairs/administration and nonprofit programs can be submitted for a symposium in the Journal of Public Affairs Education (JPAAE). In addition, your participation at the conference will allow you to generate continuing education units related to the areas of education, social work, or general teaching.

Join us to hear Cheryl Simrell King, our featured Keynote Speaker, present “Teaching Transformational (Public) Service”

Please submit your proposal to Diane Kimoto at tpac@gvsu.edu using the following format:

- a) A separate title page that includes the paper’s title, name of author(s), and contact information
NOTE: Audio-visual requests should be listed on the detachable title page.
- b) A summary of the proposal which includes: Presentation Title, Presentation Objectives, Presentation Activities, Session Format (see below), Relevant Bibliographic Citations on Topics, Presentation Description 75 (words maximum).

Session formats

- Panel discussion, demonstration Project, or Debate: 90 minute presentation by a panel of 3-5 colleagues on a topic of general interest.
- Workshop: 90 minute interactive presentation.
- Individual paper: 20-30 minute presentations that will be grouped with other presenters for discussion.
- Round Table: 45 minute, informal, small group discussions. Ideal forum for presenting works in progress.
- Poster Session
- Other: Please delineate time and configuration.

Timeline:

1. Deadline for submission of abstracts and other proposals: March 5, 2010.
2. Notification or acceptance of proposals: March 26, 2010
3. Abstracts and papers due: April 23, 2010.
4. Papers due for symposium consideration to the Journal of Public Affairs Education and International Journal of Organization Theory and Behavior: July, 2010.

Complete conference details can be found at <http://www.teachingpa.org/>

Questions regarding the conference may be directed to Dr. Diane Kimoto, Grand Valley State University - tpac@gvsu.edu